

New Flights Increase Access to NFL Match Ups This Fall

American Airlines adds round-trip flight from DCA, PHL and CLT to arrive at GRB

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 27, 2025

(Green Bay, Wis.) - American Airlines has added multiple round-trip flights to bring out-of-town football fans to Green Bay, Wisconsin and experience the historic atmosphere and cheer on their home teams during the upcoming NFL season. By touching down at Green Bay Austin Straubel International Airport \(GRB\), the additional flights give travelers convenient access to game day at the legendary, must-see Lambeau Field.

The following flights have been added from three (3) locations:

- One (1) flight departing from Reagan Washington National Airport \(DCA\) on Thursday, September 11, to correspond with the Thursday Night primetime matchup with the Washington Commanders. The return flight will be on Friday, September 12.
- One (1) flight departing from Philadelphia International Airport \(PHL\) for the Monday Night matchup against the reigning Super Bowl Champions, the Philadelphia Eagles, arrives Monday morning, November 10 and returns the following day on Tuesday, November 11.
- An additional two (2) flights departing from Charlotte Douglas International Airport \(CLT\) for the Sunday, November 2 game against the Carolina Panthers. Both flights will arrive on Saturday, November 1 and return on Monday, November 3.

“We appreciate our partner airlines and the work they put into bringing additional flights to our community,” said GRB Airport Director Marty Piette. “Lambeau Field is a top destination for football fans, and we are proud to be the first stop for visitors as they experience Green Bay and the surrounding Northeast Wisconsin area.”

Upon arrival, visitors will find a variety of ground transportation options available. The airport is home to major car rental companies, including Avis/Budget, Enterprise, Hertz and Alamo/National. Additionally, GRB provides taxicab, limousine and shuttles from several local vendors, ride-share services such as Lyft and Uber as well as car-sharing services through Turo, all available directly from the front entrance of the airport.

“We look forward to the football season each year and being able to welcome visitors into our community,” said Brown County Executive Troy Streckenbach. “The positive partnership that our airport has with the airlines makes it possible show what our community has to offer.”

GRB encourages travelers to check airlines’ websites for new routes and dates as they plan getaways for seeing their favorite teams in action during summer training camps and regular season games.

#

About Green Bay Austin Straubel International Airport

Green Bay Austin Straubel International Airport (GRB) is the third largest airport in the state, serving Northeast Wisconsin and portions of Michigan's Upper Peninsula. Business and leisure flights are offered by five major airlines, American, Delta, Frontier, Sun Country and United Airlines, and two fixed base operators (FBOs), JetAir Group and AvFlight. As the Gateway to Lambeau Field, GRB is a Green Bay Packers Partner Airport, and is the home airport of the Green Bay Packers.

Additionally, GRB is one of only two commercial airports in Wisconsin designated as a Landing Rights Airport by the U.S. Customs and Border Protection for international flight arrivals.

Find GRB online:

www.flygrb.com | Facebook | Twitter | YouTube

Media Contacts:

Marty Piette, A.A.E. – Airport Director
Green Bay Austin Straubel International Airport
920-498-4921
marty.piette@flygrb.com

Sydney Pini
Leonard & Finco Public Relations, Inc.
920-965-7750 ext. 108
sydney@kanecommgroup.com