Prevea Welcomes Dr. Audrey Green-Murphy
Pediatric hematologist-oncologist at HSHS St. Vincent Children’s Hospital

Green Bay – Prevea Health is pleased to welcome Dr. Audrey Green-Murphy, a fellowship-trained pediatric hematologist-oncologist, to its family of care.

Dr. Green-Murphy specializes in childhood and adolescent cancer - particularly, in brain and spinal cord tumors in children. She also sees pediatric patients with neurofibromatosis, bone marrow failure, blood disorders and clotting disorders. “I work with families to provide the best medical care I can while encouraging them to hold onto their beliefs and convictions,” says Dr. Green-Murphy.

She attended medical school at Lake Erie College of Osteopathic Medicine in Bradenton, Fla.; completed residency in pediatrics at Memorial Health University Medical Center in Savannah, Ga.; and completed fellowships in pediatric hematology-oncology at Arkansas Children’s Hospital and in pediatric neuro-oncology at Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia.

Dr. Green-Murphy works alongside Prevea Pediatric Hematology-Oncology providers, Dr. Jon Brandt; Dr. Catherine Long; Terri Lewis, APNP, CPNP, CPON; and Kris Schaeuble, APNP, CPNP, CPHON, at the Pediatric Hematology-Oncology Clinic located inside HSHS St. Vincent Children’s Hospital in Green Bay. Together, they make up the only onsite, full-time, pediatric hematology-oncology team in Northeast Wisconsin, caring for kids from Northeast Wisconsin, the Lakeshore and the upper peninsula of Michigan.
