SHOPKO AND COCA-COLA CELEBRATE GREEN BAY PACKERS’ 100™ SEASON WITH FAN-DRIVEN MOSAIC

Fans can meet former Packers player Jarrett Bush at the event and join the historic project

GREEN BAY, Wis. – Shopko, the Official Hometown Store of the Green Bay Packers, and Coca-Cola are teaming up on Friday, Nov. 2, from 5–7 p.m. at the Shopko store in Bay Park Square at 301 Bay Park Square to honor a century of the Packers legacy by creating the Green Bay Packers’ 100 Seasons Mosaic, presented by Coca-Cola, using fan photos. Guests also have the opportunity to meet former Packers player Jarrett Bush.

At the event, fans can take a photo at the Hashtag Printer to leave their mark on the 100 Seasons Mosaic. Fans who are unable to attend can be included in the one-of-a-kind mosaic by sharing their photos on Instagram or Twitter with the hashtag #PackersShareaCoke.

Photos that contain the hashtag will be collected leading up to the Sunday, Dec. 2, home game, where the mosaic will be built prior to kickoff. The commemorative piece will be unveiled at Lambeau Field at the beginning of the Packers’ 2019 season and later on display in the Coca-Cola concourse area.
