HEID MUSIC NAMES DECEMBER’S SCHOOL OF THE MONTH
VALDERS HIGH SCHOOL MUSIC PROGRAM, VALDERS, WI

Appleton, Wis. (Dec 12, 2018) — Heid Music announces Valders High School in Valders, WI has been selected as December’s “School of the Month”. The Valders High School band program enrolls 25-30% of the entire school population. “There is no magic button to press, or computer program to download, that will make playing an instrument easier…Kids at Valders work hard, and so there is a tremendous sense of pride when goals are reached,” - High School band directors Michelle Hussey and Sandy Kaeiser.

The Manitowoc County Board presented a proclamation in the high school’s name for marching in the 2016 Independence Day Parade in Washington, D.C for which Valders High School was able to lead the entire parade. Hussey and Kaeiser believe that a successful music program is built by excellence and broadening the experiences and education of young people.
