Prevea Welcomes Dr. Kristine Strickland

A maternal fetal medicine physician providing comprehensive care for high-risk pregnancies

Green Bay – Prevea Health is pleased to welcome Kristine Strickland, MD, FACOG, a maternal fetal medicine physician at the Prevea Maternal Fetal Medicine clinic located inside HSHS St. Vincent Hospital at 835 S. Van Buren St. in Green Bay.

Prevea Maternal Fetal Medicine is dedicated to diagnosing and treating pregnancy complications as early as possible with expert knowledge and state-of-the-art technology. Dr. Strickland works closely with patients and their OB/GYN or midwife to create a plan of care specifically designed for their health care needs. She specializes in the following:

- Comprehensive care of high-risk pregnancies
- Consultation for medical or fetal complications of pregnancy
- Genetic screening ultrasound
- Diagnostic amniocentesis
- Prenatal diagnosis
- Maternal medical complications such as high blood pressure, diabetes, thrombophilia, autoimmune disorders and fetal malformations

“I love my job and believe it is a privilege to serve women in the community in which I live and work,” says Dr. Strickland.

Dr. Strickland completed medical school and residency in obstetrics and gynecology at the Tulane University School of Medicine in New Orleans, LA; and, a fellowship in maternal fetal medicine at Wake Forest University School of Medicine in Winston-Salem, NC. She is certified by the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology in Obstetrics and Gynecology and Maternal and Fetal Medicine.
