YWCA Courageous Conversation Series: Sexual Assault Awareness Month |

GREEN BAY – Wednesday, April 24, 2019 | YWCA Greater Green Bay holds alternating monthly Stand Against Racism and Courageous Conversation events. See for yourself how the YWCA gets people talking in a disarming way about tough realities during their free monthly Lunch & Learns held from 12:00-1:00 p.m.

April is Sexual Assault Awareness Month at the YWCA. During this month’s Courageous Conversation, find out what you can do to support victims in our community.

Join the conversation “Sexual Assault: The Facts and our Community” as a prequel for Family Services’ extended community talk “Unheard Voices: A public presentation for parents and youth about the realities of sexual assault in the wake of the #METOO Movement.”

Listen to a panel of advocates and providers who will be on hand to discuss the reality of Sexual Assault in our area and offer ways to support and refer victims to resources in our community. Area experts will also provide a snapshot of the realities impacting victims and their families in our community.

Renita Robinson, YWCA CEO, shares this about the upcoming event: “We are attempting to take taboo out of difficult conversations and give victims (male and female) permission and support to get help.”

The agenda for this month’s Courageous Conversation Series is coming soon on our website.

The YWCA is dedicated to eliminating racism, empowering women and promoting peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all, and for 100 years we have been making a difference in this community.
