Green Bay – Prevea Health is pleased to announce it is now offering integrative medicine care with Dr. Tracy Page, a board-certified and fellowship-trained integrative medicine physician at the Prevea East De Pere Health Center, 3860 Monroe Rd. in De Pere.

Integrative medicine helps to address the underlying causes of complex chronic disease. It offers patient-centered care by taking nutrition, lifestyle, stress reduction, conventional medical therapies and hormone balancing into consideration. Dr. Page specializes in a variety of treatments and conditions, including:

- Medically-supervised weight loss
- Nutrition management
- Obesity
- Diabetes
- Food sensitivities
- Environmental and food allergies
- Digestive disorders (IBD, IBS, GERD)
- Adrenal disorders
- Fatigue
- Fibromyalgia
- Headaches
- Inflammatory disorders
- Insomnia
- Mood and behavior issues
- PMS, menopause, PCOS
- Osteoporosis
- Libido problems
- Hormone replacement therapy
- Thyroid disorders

“I take a whole-person assessment that addresses the underlying factors influencing a patient’s health,” said Dr. Page. “As a patient-doctor team, we will review health goals, discuss treatment options and choose the best plan of care – including complementary approaches when applicable – to optimize health, vitality and wellness.”
Dr. Page is certified by the American Board of Obesity Medicine, American Board of Anti-Aging/Regenerative Medicine and the American Board of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation. She has completed fellowships in interventional spine and sports medicine, as well as anti-aging, metabolic and functional medicine.

Appointments with Dr. Page can be made online, or by calling (920) 272-3486.
