NEW this year: Spring Break Camp

We're excited to announce that this March, the NEW Zoo & Adventure Park is offering a brand new, fun day of learning & play – it's the perfect way to keep kids busy during Spring Break! The Zoo and the Adventure Park are teaming up to provide this program which will focus on animals, art, and adventure. During the morning, campers will meet animals and learn about some of the amazing adaptations that make them unique. We'll discuss the important roles these animals – and certain endangered species – play on the planet. Campers will then use their artistic abilities to create animal enrichment (toys for the animals!), along with posters and more – some of which will be displayed at the NEW Zoo during our Earth Day event on Saturday, April 25th. After lunch, our focus will shift to "getting up and moving around!" Adventure Park staff will challenge campers physically and mentally with fun, adventure-based activities throughout the afternoon.

Spring Break Camp: Art, Animals, Adventure! will take place from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. each day, with drop-off beginning at 8:40 a.m. Students must attend the date that corresponds to their current grade level. Programs on Tuesdays March 17th and 24th are for students in grades 1, 2, and 3; and programs on Thursdays March 19th and 26th are for students in grades 4, 5, and 6. The zoo will provide a morning snack, but parents must provide a non-microwaveable, non-refrigerated lunch for each child. The program will include live animal encounters, a tour of a portion of the zoo, art and craft time, a morning snack, plus fun, adventure-based games and activities.

The cost is $35 per child (Zoo Pass and Adventure Park Members receive a 20% discount) PLUS: all participants will receive a free ticket to visit the Zoo on Saturday, April 25th, during our Party for the Planet event. Kids will be able to see the art they create during Camp on display at the event!
