

press release

PHOTO ENCLOSED

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Kelly Armstrong, vice president of economic development, Greater Green Bay Chamber, 920.496.2113 or karmstrong@greatergbc.org

HANSEN JOINS THE GREATER GREEN BAY CHAMBER'S ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Green Bay, Wis. - (March 5, 2020) - The Greater Green Bay Chamber welcomes Joel Hansen, MBA, CPA and chief financial officer of Pump's Tire Service, to its economic development board of directors.

Hansen oversees all support service functions for Pump's Tire Service in both Green Bay and Kansas City, including accounting, human resources and information technology. He also serves as the corporate treasurer and secretary on the Pump's board of directors.

Hansen is a Green Bay native who attended Southwest High School and the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay. He later pursued his master's degree in business administration from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh. His community involvement is broad and includes serving as a past member of the City of Green Bay's Economic Development Authority; various roles with Leadership Green Bay, former Small Business Council and the Business Recognition Luncheon with the Greater Green Bay Chamber; with his local alma mater's alumni association and Cofrin School of Business alumni advisory committee; and many other community contributions.

View the entire Greater Green Bay Chamber economic development board of directors at www.GreaterGBC.org/economicdevelopment and choose "economic development board of directors and committees."

Established in 1882, the mission of the Greater Green Bay Chamber is to strengthen member businesses, enhance economic and workforce development, and improve the quality of life in our community and region. For more information, call 920.593.3400 or visit greatergbc.org.

###