Investors Community Bank Welcomes Kevin Coffeen, VP-Senior Ag Banking Officer

(Manitowoc, WI, May 18, 2020) Investors Community Bank, a subsidiary of County Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ:ICBK), recently welcomed Kevin Coffeen, Vice President – Senior Ag Banking Officer to its team.

Coffeen is primarily based out of the Green Bay banking center, and is responsible for oversight of an agricultural banking portfolio that includes dairy, beef, grain and other agricultural businesses. He will also focus on helping farmers navigate their way through the challenging times agriculture is now facing, providing them the correct financial tools to help them reach their goals and put their financial concerns to rest.

Coffeen is a graduate of UW-River Falls, where he earned a Bachelor's of Science degree in Agricultural Business, with a minor in Animal Science. He joins ICB with more than 20 years of lending experience in the agricultural industry, most recently with BMO Harris Bank.

Coffeen is also heavily involved in agriculture outside of the bank. He owns a small farm outside of West DePere called Overland Acres, and his four children are very involved in showing cattle at local, state and national shows. Coffeen currently serves as President of the Brown County market animal committee and is an advisor and coordinator for the Brown County Junior Holstein Breeders and Brown County State Fair Dairy and Beef exhibits. He is also part of the West DePere FFA Alumni, a member of the Wisconsin Holstein Association and the National and State Red and White Dairy cattle Association.

He resides in West DePere with his wife Peggy and four children.

Investors Community Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of County Bancorp, Inc., is committed to serving the financial needs of businesses, farmers and families in our communities. Founded in 1997, Investors has become one of the most successful bank startups in Wisconsin's history and has full service offices in Appleton, Green Bay, Manitowoc and Stevens Point, as well as Loan Production Offices in Eau Claire, Sheboygan, Darlington and Fond du Lac.
