Prevea welcomes Dr. Lauren Useem Obstetrician/gynecologist at the Prevea Allouez Health Center

Green Bay – Prevea Health is pleased to welcome Lauren Useem, DO, MPH, to its family of care at the Prevea Allouez Health Center, 1821 S. Webster Ave. in Green Bay.

An obstetrician/gynecologist (OB/GYN), Dr. Useem specializes in routine care for women of all ages; teenage and young women’s care and concerns; routine and high-risk pregnancy care; family planning and contraception; infertility; and minimally-invasive robotic women’s surgery, including hysterectomy, endometriosis and ovarian cyst(s).

“As a physician, my goal is to provide women with the highest level of care that I would want for my mother, sister or aunt,” said Dr. Useem. “I want my patients to feel they can be open and honest with me, knowing we are on the same team to maximize their health. In addition, I strive to approach a patient’s care from a holistic manner by understanding any emotional, financial and other stressors that may affect their physical health.”

Dr. Useem earned her medical degree at A.T. Still University, School of Osteopathic Medicine in Mesa, Arizona, and completed a residency at Metro Health University of Michigan Health Hospital. Dr. Useem also holds a Master of Public Health degree from A.T. Still University, School of Health Management.

Appointments with Dr. Useem at the Prevea Allouez Health Center can be made by calling (920) 436-1360.
