Prevea welcomes orthopedic hand surgeon, Dr. Leela Farr Now caring for adults and children in Green Bay

Green Bay – Prevea Health is pleased to welcome Leela Farr, MD, FAAOS, to its family of care.

An orthopedic hand surgeon, Dr. Farr cares for adults and children and specializes in the evaluation and treatment of arthritis; acute muscle, bone or joint pain; sports and athletic injuries; trauma and fracture injuries; and work-related injuries. She also performs orthopedic surgery for fingers, hand, wrist, forearm and elbow, including:

- Arthroscopy
- Cartilage restoration, repair and replacement
- Fractures
- Ligament and tendon repair including the Arthrex® MiniTightRope® procedure
- Minor office procedures performed under local anesthesia

Dr. Farr sees patients at the Prevea Regional Orthopedic Center at HSHS St. Mary’s Hospital Medical Center, 1726 Shawano Ave. in Green Bay. Appointments can be made by calling (920) 272-3300.

“As a former athlete, I have experienced injuries and understand the importance of customized care,” said Dr. Farr. “I believe a thorough understanding of each patient’s concerns and orthopedic needs is of utmost importance. That’s why I take a team approach to treatment and encourage my patients to take an active role in their care.”

Dr. Farr graduated medical school at the University of Oklahoma College of Medicine and completed a residency in orthopedic surgery at SUNY-Upstate Medical University in New York and a fellowship in hand surgery at Christine M. Kleinert Institute for Hand and Microsurgery. She is certified by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery in Orthopaedic Surgery and Surgery of the Hand.
